

Dear IPWA Volunteers, Members, and Friends,

Exciting news – Colorado Gives Day is here! ☀️

For more than four decades, the Indian Peaks Wilderness Alliance and supporters like you have been dedicated to protecting and preserving our treasured Wilderness areas. Together, we've safeguarded the beauty of the Indian Peaks and James Peak Wilderness for current and future generations.

Today, we invite you to continue standing with us in this vital mission. Your support is essential to ensuring the ongoing care and protection of these stunning natural landscapes.

Donating is simple – just click the button below to make your contribution. No matter the amount, your generosity will have a lasting impact and help sustain our programs into 2025 and beyond.

On this Colorado Gives Day, let's unite to make a difference that echoes through the majestic peaks and serene wilderness we all cherish. It's more than just a day to give – it's a chance to be part of something truly meaningful.

Thank you for your steadfast support and for being a vital part of our collective effort to preserve these wild places.

Sincerely,
The IPWA
